EQUITY COOPERATIVE LIVESTOCK SALES ASSOCIATION WELCOMES TWO NEW EMPLOYEES

BARABOO, WI – Recently, Scott Anderson and Derek Fenner joined the work force at Equity Cooperative Livestock Sales Association in Baraboo.

Anderson will be taking on the role of Commodity Broker and will work with producers who utilize cattle contracts. He previously worked for Equity for 10 years as lamb division manager more than 29 years ago.

He has a Bachelor of Science degree in animal production and economics and was most recently employed at Sysco Foods. Anderson enjoys hunting, fishing and other outdoor activities. He and his wife June reside in Merrimac and have three children; Blake, Mikayla and Cecelia.

Fenner has taken on the role of System Administrator and is responsible for support and maintenance of the cooperative's network infrastructure from the corporate office throughout all market locations.

He has an Associate's Degree in applied science specializing in IT networking from Western Wisconsin Technical College. Fenner farmed until 1989, did concrete work within the family business, and worked in the food industry. He coaches youth soccer and is an avid motorcycle and bicycle rider, and enjoys hiking and kayaking. He and his wife Cheryl live in Mauston and have two children; Ian and Ally.

Equity Cooperative Livestock Sales Association is a federated cooperative headquartered in Baraboo, Wisconsin. Equity operates 14 auction markets, and services producers in Illinois, Iowa, Michigan, Minnesota, South Dakota and Wisconsin. Equity assists producers with the marketing, managing and financing of their agricultural businesses.
