

Scholarship Program

Equity Rich Land Livestock Marketing Cooperative's scholarship program offers financial assistance to help students in the pursuit of higher education as they face the challenge of significantly rising cost to obtain a college degree. These awards will support those who are academically successful, are leaders among their peers and are making positive impacts in their communities.

Equity Rich Land will begin accepting scholarship applications on April 1st through May 1st of each year. An applicant or applicants will be selected no later than July 31st of each year and notified by email or mail. Scholarship will be paid upon completion of fall semester and awardee will be required to submit, no later than January 31st, an official/unofficial transcript, proof of final fall semester grades and spring class schedule or proof of enrollment as instructed in the award letter.

Applications can be picked up at the Equity Richland Center Market at 26702 County Highway O Richland Center, WI 53581, or at www.equitycoop.com.
